

JESUS ^{is} the IDOL-BREAKER

Make these truths your prayer:

- I realize my old nature died with You, and I have been raised to new life through Your resurrection, which enables me to overcome idolatry. (Rom. 6:1-11; 21-22)
- I am a new creation and a child of the Living God. (2 Cor. 5:17)
- I receive Your forgiveness and cleansing from my sins. (Col. 2:13a; 1 Cor. 6:11; Is. 1:18)
- I commit to obey Your commands and to find them worthy of my trust. (Ps. 37:5,6a)
- I delight in the Lord of my salvation. (Col. 3:1-13)
- I thank You for Your many blessings and for my losses, hardships and trials. (Rom. 5:3; Eph. 5:20; 1 Thess. 5:18)
- I submit to Your sovereign control in ordaining all circumstances for Your glory, my growth in character and my service in Your Kingdom. (Ps. 33:18-22; Rom. 5:3-5)
- I choose to believe You are the Lover of my soul and fulfill me in ways I cannot presently conceive. (John 4:14)
- I realize You have the power to turn trials into triumphs. (Ps. 30:10-12)
- I release my fears and my future into Your capable hands. (Ps. 34:4; 112:7,8a)
- I abandon myself to Your life plan, which You will unfold step by step, as I walk in obedience. (Ps. 139:16; 32:8)
- I understand that You are the Sustainer of my soul. (Ps. 54:4)
- I seek You to revive me in my weariness and to turn me away from vain things. (Ps. 85:6; 119:37; Is. 57:15)
- I know that You and Your Word can change me; bringing freedom and healing. (Eph. 3:20,21; John 8:31,32)
- I rest in your sovereign control and wait in expectation of the demonstration of Your goodness. (Ps. 27:13,14; 31:19)
- I entrust myself to the Man who died for me, my Shepherd, and to experience Your rest, peace and joy. (Ps. 23:1-3)
- I am willing and able through Your power to participate in broadening Your Kingdom wherever You place me. (2 Cor. 3:5,6; 1 Pet. 2:9)
- I remind myself that this life is fleeting and Your perfect Kingdom awaits me. (2 Pet 1:10-11)
