

PURSUING IDOLS IN MY KINGDOM

- I am created as a worshipper. As a result of the fall, I was born worshipping myself.
- Because of my pride, I attempt to build my kingdom and establish my identity as king/queen. I believe everyone and everything, including God, is subject to me, my desires and demands.
- Because of my unbelief in the character of God, I turn to idols that feed my identity as king/queen. I cling to these idols, expecting they will satisfy and fulfill me.

I believe God joins MY kingdom to ensure my goals are met.
